Livermores are proud to bring to the market this well-presented three double bedroom, terraced family home.

This charming house has been decorated to a high standard and was renovated throughout in 2008. It comprises a lounge, spacious kitchen-diner, smart conservatory, family bathroom, three double bedrooms, with an en suite to the third floor bedroom. There is also space for a separate "office" area.

The property has a beautiful, south facing, well maintained and mature garden, with rear access and also a sizable front garden. In addition, the property is in a great location for families, on the popular Fleet Estate, with excellent local amenities. Furthermore, with good transport links which relate to both road and rail, proximate to a number of the area's schools, including The Brent Primary, which has an 'outstanding' Ofsted status.

We consider this property to be ideal for owner occupation or as a Buy to Let investment.

Energy Efficiency Rating: D
